Richard a Chara,

Congratulations on your election as State President and to your leadership team of Leo Maguire, Gerald Logan, and Ryan Green.

I would also like to thank you and the AOH for your steadfast support for the cause of peace, justice, and unity.

We are at a time of historic opportunity in Ireland. Twenty-Five years on from the signing of the Good Friday Agreement support for Irish Unity is growing. The building of a new and united Ireland is achievable by peaceful and democratic means. The future of all of Ireland is in the hands of the people and the people are hungry for change.

While we look to the future with confidence, we are not complacent. The opportunity that has been handed to our generation is only of value if it is realised.

The key steps will be having an Irish Government advocating, planning, and preparing for unity, securing the unity referendums in line with the Good Friday Agreement and winning the referendums.

The AOH, our exiled children in America, and US Administration will be central to securing the transformational potential of the Good Friday Agreement.

There is much to do to build a new and united Ireland. Together we can make it happen.

Is mise

Mary Lou McDonald
Uachtarán Shinn Féin
